Light "Let there be Light." From the verse "G-d is my light and salvation, whom shall I fear?"⁹ we learn that faith in the Holy One, blessed be He, is also called "light." (Hence, light and faith in G-d, the first commandment, correspond.)	There is only one God I am the Lord your Gd who took you out of Egypt to be your Gd	Do not kill	Sea & Sky Creatures "Let the waters team with life and let creatures fly on the face of the sky." "Do not kill a man, who is also called "a living creature."¹⁷ And do not be like fish, the larger of which swallows the smaller.
Let there be a firmament in the middle of the water." "There shall be a firmament," refers to the Jewish people who are part of G-d Above,⁷ for they are attached to that plane which is called shemayim (Heaven, or firmament). "Between the waters," — among the words of Torah (which is called water, as our Sages explain⁸) "And it (the Jewish people) shall divide between water and water" — between G-d, who is called "the Source of Living Water"⁹ and false deities which are called "broken wells"⁹ containing bitter, putrid and stagnant water. (Thus, the division between water and water is dependent on the Jewish people learning Torah.)	No form can represent God There are no other powers and do not have any other images	Do not commit adultery	Land Creatures "Let the earth bring forth living creature." "From this we learn that a man should not approach a woman who is not his soulmate. For this reason the verse, "in their species." A woman must not bear children from one who is not her "species" i.e. her soul mate
Earth & Sea "The water shall be gathered and dry land shall be seen." Do not cause a separation in the unity of the waters (referring to the Shechinah — the indwelling Divine Presence¹⁰) by uttering a false oath.	God's Name is Holy Do not take the name of Hashem in vain	Do not steal	"Behold I have given the fruit of the earth as food for all living beings." that which I have given you, and allowed you to use, is yours. Do not steal that which belongs to someone else.
Vegetation "Let the earth send forth vegetation." When does the earth become fertile and become covered with vegetation? On the Sabbath, when the bride (the Sabbath) unites with the King (G-d).¹¹ This brings forth vegetation and blessing for the world. (Every weekday is provided its food by virtue of the blessing it receives from the Shabbath,¹² just as the manna which came down only during the week, was by virtue of the Sabbath.¹³)	The 7th Day is Holy Remember the Sabbath	Do not bear false witness	"Let us create a being in our image and likeness." Do not testify falsely against one who bears the Divine image. And if one testifies falsely, it is as if he blasphemed.
This means that the luminaries are your father and mother — the sun is your father, and the moon your mother, alluding to the Holy One, blessed be He, your father, as the verse states. "For the sun and its sheath are G-d, the Lord."¹⁴ (The verse makes an association between G-d — who is the ultimate source of all "light" in the sense of Divine revelation — and the sun, the source of physical light.) And the moon refers to Knesset Yisrael (the collective soul of the Jewish people), as the verse states (regarding Israel), "Your moon shall never disappear."¹⁵ (It seems that the intention here is that our "father and mother" — G-d, and the collective Jewish soul — are honored by the Torah which the Jewish people learn in this world, as our Sages explain, "There is no honor other than Torah."¹⁶)	Honor your parents Sun, Moon, Stars "Let there be lights in the Heavens to divide day & night."	Do not covet	Male/Female "I will make a you companion." This refers to each person's soul-mate who matches him perfectly. Hence, "Do not be envious of your neighbor's wife..."
